

A MUSEUM EVENING, IN A DIFFERENT LIGHT

After Closing.

Look closer. Listen differently.

Flashlight observation · A conservator's talk
A sound walk

---

SATURDAY / 18:00–21:00 / UP TO 40 ADULTS

AFTER CLOSING / FICTIONAL CULTURAL EVENT

Curiosity after dark.

For adults who want a different Saturday.

First-time museum visitors, friends and solo guests.
No specialist knowledge needed.

---

40 adults. One shared evening.

Look. Ask. Listen.

---

01

Flashlight observation

Discover texture and hidden detail on approved replicas, guided by a narrow beam.

18:20

---

02

Conservator's talk

Hear how objects are cared for, see a sample demonstration, and ask questions.

19:10

---

03

Sound walk

Listen to footsteps, echoes and short sound cues along a guided corridor route.

20:00

Silver light. Ink-blue night.

A quiet, cinematic setting.
Orange marks the route;
the collection takes the spotlight.

Clear paths · Seats · Step-free route

Staff-issued flashlights on approved replicas.
Original works retain approved lighting.

One evening. A clear path.

18:00

Entry

18:20

Flashlight observation

19:10

Conservator's talk

20:00

Sound walk

21:00

Finish

01

Entrance

Check-in & briefing

02

Exhibition hall

Flashlight observation

03

Talk area

Talk & questions

04

Exit

Return flashlights

20:00 SOUND WALK

Talk area → approved corridor → exit. Finish by 21:00.

Three roles. One welcome.

---

01

Event host

Welcome guests; check access needs.
Guide transfers and keep time.
Count visitors; finish by 21:00.

---

02

Conservator

Lead observation at 18:20.
Give the 19:10 talk and demo.
Answer questions on object care.

---

03

Sound-walk guide

Check the route and sound cues.
Guide the 20:00 sound walk.
Collect flashlights at the exit.

Venue to confirm security, emergency provision and route access.

Make it a night.

40

ADULTS MAXIMUM

Saturday

18:00–21:00

Invite with intrigue.

A silver-lit detail. A conservator's story.
A sound-walk teaser. Share through museum
email and local cultural channels.

Make the details clear.

Adults only; 40-person limit. Publish the schedule, access information and confirmed ticket price.

Stay curious. After Closing.

A fictional museum evening for up to 40 adults.
Saturday · 18:00–21:00

---

Confirm spaces and access.
Assign the three staff roles.
Rehearse the route, then invite.

